

Wow!!! Hello parents, November 28, 2011

Christmas has arrived at Play School. Today, Monday, I took pictures of all the children as angels, and they are amazing.

This is a note to let you all know that:

- Wednesday, Nov. 30,
- Thursday, Dec. 1,
- we will be making Gingerbread houses with the children.
- For this we could use your help. It takes lots of small, unwrapped candies to attach to the graham cracker houses.
- M & M's, candy corns, small candy canes, etc.

We will have some, so if this catches you at a bad time, don't worry. We are doing this early this year, so I didn't get this note out early enough to do a sign-up.

NOW... Looking ahead.

The MWF Class will be having a program on Wednesday, Dec.14. One will be a dress rehearsal at about 11:15 am. Then the evening program at 6 pm, at Play School. The last couple of years we have had this program in the evening up in one of the bigger Mt.Hermon rooms, but with our class size so small this year, we will just have it at Play School. It will be warm and cozy and we hope that families will be able to come and enjoy.

The TTh class will be having their program on Thursday, Dec. 15 at Play School at about 11:15. More info to come later.

If, as you go through your old Christmas cards, you decide that you no longer want to keep them, we would love for you to recycle them to us. We use the pictures for the children to cut and paste. Thanks

Well, just one more thing, not about Christmas, but about how we live and how we raise our children. My husband was sent this by a friend, and he asked me to watch it with him. Amazing and very thought provoking. I hope if you get to view it with those you love, that it will be helpful as you strive to make your family a healthy place to raise children. Let me know what you think. <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iCvmsMzIF7o>
